

DWAYNE PEASLEE TECHNICAL TRAINING CENTER CERTIFICATES

Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), DOL:

- OSHA 10 Certificate: Attained by taking Fall 2015 courses in Construction or HVAC through Neosho County Community College. The OSHA 10 will be available each semester thereafter.

Construction:

- Level I Construction Certificate by NCCC will be available after two semesters/16 cr hrs.
- National Center for Construction Education and Research (NCCER) Level I Core Curriculum Certificate within two semesters through NCCC
- NCCER Advanced Certification—Carpentry I: Competency based—typically attained during the second level of NCCC certificate, which is four semesters totaling 36 cr hrs

Heating, Ventilation, and Air Conditioning (HVAC):

- OSHA 10, NCCER Level I Core, and NCCER HVAC Level I: Competency based and typically attained during the first two NCCC semesters of 9 cr hrs each totaling 18 cr hrs

Manufacturing:

- Industrial Engineering Technology Level I through Flint Hills Tech: Certificate after 4 semesters
- Manufacturing Technologist 1 (MT1): May be offered through Peaslee in the future. A competency-based national test, potential in one semester.

Welding:

- Welding Level I through NCCC, coincides with a national Entry Level Certificate by the American Welding Society's Schools Excelling through National Standards (SENSE ). Competency testing after 16 cr hrs to gain AWG's 1G, 2G, 1F, & 2F Certificates
- Welding Level II through NCCC, coincides with the AWS's SENSE Advanced Welder Certificate. Competency testing after 32 cr hrs to gain AWG's 3G, 4G, 3F, 4F Certificates

Career Building:

- Peaslee Center's Building My Career Certificate: Requires successful completion of the Building My Career Course, including orientation and industry sessions, 8 seat hrs
- Peaslee Center's Building My Career PLUS Certificate: Requires successful completion of the Resolving Workplace Conflicts and Creative Problem Solving courses, 32 seat hrs

Computer:

- Personal Computer Applications Specialist Certificate (PCAS), through Johnson County Community College. Requires 11 cr hrs, 2-3 semesters. Competency testing required for the Microsoft Office User Specialist Certificate (MOUS). Pending final decisions with JCCC.

SUMMARY

One Semester:	Building My Career – Peaslee Center Building My Career PLUS – Peaslee Center OSHA 10 - National MT1 – Peaslee Center (if offered), National
Two Semesters:	Level I Construction - NCCC Level I NCCER Core - National NCCER Level I HVAC - National AWS SENSE Level I Welding (1G, 2G, 1F, 2F) - National PCAS/MOUS (May require 3 + sems) - National
Four Semesters:	NCCER Advanced Certification-Carpentry I - National Industrial Engineering Technology Level I - FHTC AWS SENSE Level II Welding (3G, 4G, 3F, 4F), (may require 4+ sems) - National